Our phone message service for prayer requests and announcements is 'One Call'.

If I am not in the office, I cannot send an email regarding the prayer request or announcement.

If you have problems receiving the messages, please let me know. There is a report that is generated for each message. If you are on the phone when the message comes through and don't have a way for the message to go to a voicemail, then you may not receive the message. The One Call system will try sending it again at least one more time.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Sherry 😊

Terry Livengood and Doug Berg have agreed to serve 3-year terms as Elders pending affirmation, Confirmation by the congregation will be on May 11th. Any questions can be addressed to Pastor Wes Bergen or Don Green.

Wanted!

A boat that resembles an ancient fishing boat (to be used during the week of Bible School).
