SIGNIFICANT ITEMS
Church Council Meeting
May 7, 2004

1. Jerry presented a Trustees' report of repairs that have been done this month, and plans for upcoming work to be done. The Trustees also expressed appreciation for local businesses who donated time and materials for recent repairs.
2. Council agreed that it may be time to start getting estimates and recommendations for replacement of the church roof.
3. Updated Bible School information will soon be on the church website as well as copies of the church bulletin.
4. There was an update from the Pastor Search committee.
5. Pastor John gave an overview of his upcoming schedule and upcoming church events.

Follow the wild, faith-based adventures of 2,000-year-old squirrels as they explore Tennessee with a group of wacky fifth graders. Books 1-3 in the Dead Sea Squirrels Series are available in our church library. They are perfect for ages 6-10.

Attention!

All young people! Bible School is right around the corner. So, grab your water bottle, your Bible, and your friends, because this is going to be a great adventure!
