Emergency Contact

Some of us who are a part of our church community do not have family nearby. This can make it more challenging to ensure safety and well-being, especially in the event of an emergency. If you would like, please send your emergency contact information to office@springsmc.org – subject line: emergency contact. The list would go to the Elders, and Pastor when we have one, and a list will be kept in the church office.

Labor Day Weekend is fast approaching.
